TRAIL STORY

A park built for remembrance

Salt Lake City set this canyon aside as a park in 1902. After World War I, community members helped dedicate it as a memorial park, adding monuments that honor people who served and died.

LOOK FOR - SIGHTINGS ARE NEVER GUARANTEED

- ☐ The marble Pagoda
- ☐ A military memorial or name
- ☐ City Creek moving through the park
- ☐ A mature shade tree
- ☐ A bridge over water
- ☐ The moment downtown disappears from view

THREE TRAIL MISSIONS

- 1 Choose one memorial and look closely for its date and symbols.
- 2 Imagine why a quiet canyon can be a meaningful memorial.
- 3 Compare the formal lower park with the wilder upper trail.

MAP IT!

Draw the creek as your map's center line, then add a bridge and memorial.

Add a legend: start, water, rest stop, viewpoint and turnaround.

KIND HIKER CODE

- Stay on the signed trail.
- Give wildlife plenty of room.
- Leave plants, rocks and water alone.
- Pack out every snack scrap.

THIS TRAIL'S SMART RULE

Treat monuments respectfully and use the signed leash or off-leash areas correctly.

GROWN-UP CHECK

Weather, access, parking and closures can change.
